YCPO Baskets

Each year, the Branson Tri-Lakes Kiwanis tries to do at least one Young Children Priority One (YCPO) project. This is a project that is geared to help children prenatal to age 5.

This year we chose to make baskets to help families with babies in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU). The very first basket went to Eddie Dixon (pictured left), son of Rob & Melanie Dixon, who had to spend the first few weeks of his life in the NICU unit.

We spent more than $1,500 to make the 48 baskets.

How well do you know....

JULIE LINDSTROM

Occupation: Ozark Mountain Bank, Branch Manager - Cedar Ridge

Joined Kiwanis: March, 2006

Family: Son and Daughter-in-law -
Chris and Laura Hallgren.

Hobbies: Quilting & playing at the lake.

Interesting Info: I have a group of quilting friends from back home, that I meet three times a year at different cabins in Nebraska so we can enjoy each others company, quilt and eat.

Why did you join Kiwanis?: To become more involved in the community and meet new people.

Something You May Not Have Known Is...
I traveled about Europe (Germany, Austria, Holland) the summer after I graduated from High School.

DOUG LAY

Occupation: Business Broker/Commercial Real Estate

Joined Kiwanis: April, 2009

Family: Two children & spouses -
Heath & Sarah, Ginger and Josh

Hobbies: Golf, fishing and hunting

Interesting Info: I'm a huge St. Louis Cardinals fan

Why did you join Kiwanis?: To give back, especially to the children.

Something You May Not Have Known Is...
I grew up on Fall Creek road (when it was still gravel) at a trout fishing resort.
